

TALISMAN 1975

BRYAN GRAY

Let's stop saying we care for our country and the people around us; let's really care for them, and show it by our actions.

Twenty-five years ago the first TALISMAN was published. It was named after a symbol of good luck carved from stone, which adorned the household of every ancient Greek. Those precious charms, believed to have the power to ward off evil, were admired and cherished by all. Consequently, through the years, a TALISMAN has come to mean a keepsake of great value. It is with great pride that we, the creators of this book, present to you the 25th TALISMAN.

Interests may vary, but pride in accomplishment is equal.

Cheer, cheer for ol' Bedford High
For it's the best school under the sky!

Sing its praises far and wide.
We honor, we love it, it's our pride!

On the road to victory,
We will pledge our loyalty,

Onward, always, to the end,
for dear ol' Bedford High!

Summer Fun

Summer played an important role in preparing students and teachers for the '74-'75 school year. Our cheerleaders attended U.S.C.A. All-American Camp in Walden Woods, Michigan, where Janette Hubbard was crowned prettiest cheerleader. (Far right, page 69) The band attended Wolverine Camp in Wolverine, Michigan where they prepared themselves for the '74-'75 marching season. (Top, page 68) Mr. Pinkerman spent 8 weeks of his summer in Boulder, Colorado, where he attended the B.S.C.S. Program at the University of Colorado. (Top, page 69) The Goalpost Staff sent several of its members to Oakland University, along with the photographer of the Talisman staff, where they received instruction on how to make their publications better. (Bottom, page 69) The Talisman also sent its two editors to Winston-Salem, North Carolina, where they attended classes and took a tour of their publishers, The Hunter Publishing Company. Our football players attended Camp DeSalles in Irish Hills, Michigan, where they prepared themselves for the new season. (Bottom, page 68.)

BEDFORD SPORTS

For 25 years students at Bedford have been adding school spirit and pride by participating in sports.

In battles against other schools, they gave their all. They did it in the best form that a sportsman could. From football to girls track, there is the desire to win. To win, you must give of yourself. Whether coach or athletes, team or individual, male or female, our athletes gave all they could. With talent and skill they fought to win, not always winning, but always giving their all.
